 d 19 Jan 1601/2 Buried in Salisbury Cathedral For political reasons after fall of Grey Family marriage was declared null and void.
 = (2) 1562/3 LADY CATHERINE TALBOT dau of GEORGE, Earl of b d 1575 Shrewsbury
 ALL ISSUE BY LADY MARY, Countess of Pembroke = (3) 1577 = MARY SIDNEY dau of SIR HENRY SIDNEY b 1561 sis of SIR PHILIP SIDNEY
 d 25 Sep 1621 buried in Salisbury Cathedral

Succeeded as EARL OF PEMBROKE &c in 1569
 Installed Knight of the Garter 20 May 1574
 President of the Councill of the welch Marches
 In 1574 he is said to have entertained Queen Elizabeth at wilton.
 Lord of North and South Wales, & of Hereford, Shropshire, Wiltshire & Worcester.
 A General in the Army & an Admiral in the Navy.
 Prominent in the Trial of Mary, Queen of Scots in 1586.

English author and literary patron; sister and literary executor of Sir Philip Sidney. Suggested Sidney's Arcadia, composed for her amusement (1580-81); collaborated with her brother in metrical psalms; translated French works; patron of SAMUEL DANIEL, NICH-OLAS BRETON, BEN JONSON, Depicted as Urania in Colin Clouts Come Home Againe by Spencer and as Clorinda in Astrophel.

The armor of HENRY HERBERT (1534 - 1601) 2nd
 Earl of Pembroke, was made in the royal armory at Greenwich and, like the Montmorency armor, came from Wilton House. The first folio edition of Shakespeare, published in 1623, was dedicated to two of Henry's sons, PHILIP and WILLIAM, the third Earl. The Pembroke armor is decorated with etched and gilded bands enclosing trophies and heraldic arms that form an integral feature of the decorative scheme and epitomize the history of the great Pembroke family. The inclusion of the Garter in the motifs dates the suit after the year 1574, when the earl was knighted. The armor, together with its exchange pieces is illustrated in an armorer's album of the time of Elizabeth, now in the Victoria and Albert Museum. The drawings in this album, executed in pen and ink and water colors, represent twenty-nine full suits, with supplemental pieces for tilting, belonging to prominent nobles and captains of Elizabeth's reign. (This armor is now 1971 in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. The description given above is from their Booklet "Historical Armor"

"the Epitaph on the Dowager Countess of Pembroke, attributed to Ben Jonson is one of the best known and most largely quoted in the language"

Ep 7 & Ep 9

"Underneath this sable hearse
 Lies the subject of all verse.
 Sidney's sister, Pembroke's Mother:
 Death! ere thou hast slain another Lern'd and fair, and good as she
 Time shall throw a dart at thee.

Marble piles let no man raise
 To her name for after days;
 Some kind woman born as she,
 Reading this, like Niobe Shall turn mourner, and become Both her mourner and her tomb."

published New York 1946) but - In the 10th Edition of Curiosities in Wilton-House, Salisbury MDCCLXXXIV:
 "In the Gallery of the Great Hall, There are several suits of armour, disposed in niches: One of them belonged to WILLIAM, EARL OF PEMBROKE, who commanded the English forces at the battle of St. Quintin; another of the Constable Montmorency, taken prisoner there; and another to the Duke of Montpenfier, also taken prisoner there." (does this mean that the Henry Herbert armor is William's and dated after 1549?)

In his autobiography it is proved that he was 15 when married which proves his birth date to be 1583.

MUCKROSS HOUSE KILLARNEY, was built in 1843 of Portland Stone and cost £ 30,000. The owners in 1843 were HENRY ARTHUR HERBERT M. P. for Kerry who had the home built. In 1899 the property was sold to LORD ARDILAUN.

In 1911 MR. WILLIAM BOWERS BOURN bought it as a wedding gift for his daughter, Maude, and her husband, ARTHUR VINCENT.

In 1932 the House and Estate of 11,000 acres presented to the Irish Nation by the family. The Gardens, originally laid out by the HERBERTS were extended by Mr. Vincent and now developed and maintained by the commissioners of public works. The Guide Book has pictures of the house and rooms

THOMAS HERBERT =

 He is not in ED nor in his gr-f's 1648 will, however, unnamed grand children were included in the will. Is he the "Cousin" (nephew?) that the 3rd Lord of Cherbury brought to County Kerry as his agent in 1656?
 If so he is the ancestor of the Herberts of Ireland. (Hist. & Guide to Muckross House Killarney, Ireland Pub. 1970)

MARY BENNETT MAID SERVANT OF CAPT. THOS. WILLOUGHBY

b ca 1631 (Df 38) d between 1672 - 1682 (E 131 LNco)

In Jul 1672 JOHN HERBERT is apparently still out of the country for his wife, MARY, "humbly craves a hearing at the next Court, unexpected Providence" being her reason. (E f 125a & 248 Lnc)
 She is the mother of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY b betw. 15 Nov - 15 Dec 1654, illegitimate son of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY II. (C 96a,97,105, 110,113a,117a,186)

By 1644 conditions in England had become difficult because of the Civil Wars. In a correspondence with Daniel Llewellyn of Charles City, William Hallom of England wrote: "If these times hold long amongst us we must all faine come to Virginia." The message sent by Hallom was prophetic, for by 1650, many well-to-do Englishmen, loyal to the Crown, fled to Virginia to escape the wrath of Cromwell's men. Some were so deeply involved politically that they assumed aliases. Captain Francis Dade was known in Virginia, until the restoration, as Major John Smith. Many who came to Virginia during Cromwell's period, 1649 - 1660, remained. (Domestic Life in the 17th Century, by Annie Lash Jester, Jamestown 350th Anniversary Booklet #17 p 34)
 The restoration of Charles II occurred in 1660.

JOHN HERBERT son of RICHARD and grandson of EDWARD 1st LORD HERBERT OF CHERBURY inherited £ 80 in new gold from his grandfather in 1648. JOHN HERBERT alias WILKINSON was in Lower Norfolk County, Virginia in 1649 when he signed a deed (Vab 38)
 JOHN WILKINSON. After the restoration, in 1664 JOHN HERBERT alias WILKINSON resumes his proper name of HERBERT. (5 PB 265)

In 1662 JOHN WILKINSON is fined for not having his children baptised. Court (4N33) Perhaps this is when he resumed his "true name of HERBERT?"

His two sons were named JOHN, after himself, and RICHARD, after his father in England?. The division of his estate in 1682 proves that MARY BENNETT was the mother of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY, JOHN HERBERT II AND RICHARD HERBERT and the wife of JOHN HERBERT I. (5 DB 160)

In a History of Monmouthshire published about 1910 there are PEDIGREES OF HERBERTS said to be relied upon for their correctness. Photocopies of any pedigree pertaining to the EARLS of PEMBROKE's descendants and the MONTGOMERY and CHERBURY LINES may prove valuable in this research.

Will of John Herbert I C 185a

wd 15 Jan 1669 wp 16 Apr 1675 - "my sonne Jno: Herbert "my clear ground and housing, as much as will be his equall proportion amongst ye rest of my wife's sonnes"
 "to ye rest of my wife's sonnes all the remeyning part of my land equally to be divided amongst them and to be delivered at the age of 21 years"
 "If that child my wife now goes with bee a boy then his share to equall all the rest"
 "If any of the aforesaid children shall dye before they attayn to the age aforesaid or without heirs, his or their part to returne to those that shall survive" 1/3 of personal & real estate to well beloved wife, Mary Herbert during her natural life or marriage.
 the other 2/3s to be divided between "all of my wife's children that is now living, and in case any of them die in their minority then his or theirs part to return to the rest of the said children!"

will of John Herbert II 40850a

1679 wp May 1679 - leaves his land to "sonne John and If the child in esse be a boy then he is to have the other half" (the child in esse was Thomas) He empowers his brother (1/2 bro.) Thomas Willoughby to see that his children are not wronged. (There can be little doubt that Thomas Herbert was named for Thomas Willoughby)

20 Jun 1682 recorded 15 Aug 1691 - Division of the Land of John Herbert I John Herbert II is dec'd and his children are living with Henry Dale. The Division of the Land is made according to the will of John I.
 1/3 to the orphans of John Herbert, son & heirs of John Herbert Sr. both deceased, now living with Henry Dale.
 1/3 to Richard Herbert (the child in esse in 1669)
 1/3 to Thomas Willoughby
 (The above proves that John Herbert II, Richard Herbert and Thomas Willoughby are the sons of Mary Herbert, relict of John Herbert, 508160

Mar 1691/2 wp 15 Jan 1693/4 Nun. will of Richard Herbert who "did give all of his estate to his brother (bro.) Thomas Willoughby" 508231

14 Nov 1698 - John Herbert's (III) (heir of his grandfather & father John Herbert's dec'd) died to Thomas Willoughby Sr according to the will of his grandfather dated 15 Jan (utilized). John is selling land according to the true intent and meaning" (of the grandfather's will no doubt) 608143

19 Nov 1698 - Thomas Willoughby's deed to Cozen (brother) John Herbert selling land that was supposed to be given (utilized) dated 15 Jan 1669 (this date is date of John Herbert I's will) 608144

(The above two deeds, although badly mutilated, show that there was some default in the division of the land and John and Thomas are re-establishing their property lines. The deeds are also further proof that Thomas Willoughby is the son of Mary Herbert, relict of John Herbert I.)

MARY BENNETT MAID SERVANT OF CAPT. THOS. WILLOUGHBY

b ca 1631 (OF 38) d between 1672 - 1682 (E 131 LNC)
In Jul 1672 JOHN HERBERT is apparently still out of the country for his wife, MARY, "humbly craves a hearing at the next Court, unexpected Providence" being her reason. (E f 125a & 248 LNC)
She is the mother of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY b betw. 15 Nov - 15 Dec 1654, illegitimate son of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY II. (C 96a, 97, 105, 110, 113a, 117a, 186)

By 1644 conditions in England had become difficult because of the Civil War. In a correspondence with Daniel Llewellyn of Charles City, William Bellon of England wrote: "If these times hold long amongst us we must all faine come to Virginia." The message sent by Hallom was prophetic, for by 1650, many well-to-do Englishmen, loyal to the Crown, fled to Virginia to escape the wrath of Cromwell's men. Some were as deeply involved politically that they assumed aliases. Captain Francis Dade was known in Virginia, until the restoration, as Major John Smith. Many who came to Virginia during Cromwell's period, 1649 - 1660, remained. (Domestic Life in the 17th Century, by Annie Lash Jester, Jamestown 350th Anniversary Booklet 17 p 34) The restoration of Charles II occurred in 1660.

JOHN HERBERT son of RICHARD and grandson of EDWARD Ld LORD HERBERT OF CHERBURY inherited b 80 in new gold from his grandfather in 1648. JOHN HERBERT alias WILKINSON was in Lower Norfolk County, Virginia in 1649 when he signed a deed (Vab 38) JOHN WILKINSON. After the restoration, in 1664 JOHN HERBERT alias WILKINSON resumes his proper name of HERBERT. (5 PB 265)

In 1662 JOHN WILKINSON is fined for not having his children baptized. Court (4N33) Perhaps this is when he resumed his "true name of HERBERT"

His two sons were named JOHN, after himself, and RICHARD, after his father in England. The division of his estate in 1682 proves that MARY BENNETT was the mother of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY, JOHN HERBERT II and RICHARD HERBERT and the wife of JOHN HERBERT I. (5 DB 160)

In a History of Monmouthshire published about 1910 there are PEDIGREES OF HERBERTS said to be relied upon for their correctness. Photocopies of any pedigree pertaining to the EARLS of PEMBROKE's descendancy and the MONTGOMERY and HERBERT LINES may prove valuable in this research.

THE FORGERY

from

Heraldic Visitations of Wales and some of the Marches, Lewis Dwnn - 1846

In Coxe's Historical Tour of Monmouthshire, and in Fenton's Tour, a document is given purporting to be a commission from Edward IV, to an Esquire, a Gentleman, and three Bards, to inquire into the Pedigree of Herbert; but neither state where the original is preserved. Now the return of these Commissioners bears the date of the 12th of August 1460. But, Dugdale, who gives the Extract "from a certain manuscript book, in the custody of Edward, now Lord Herbert of Chirbury," which he saw, states the year to be 1462, in his Baronage Vol. ii p 256. It therefore could only be an entry copied from the original document, now probably lost. Dugdale, however, observes in the beginning of his account of this family, that the descent of William Earl of Pembroke, is by some derived from Herbert, son of Herbert, Chamberlain to Henry I, in which the Pedigree given in Vincent's MSS., and those of Lewis, in the College of Arms, as well as the Pedigree here set forth by Lewis Dwnn concur; but by others, continues Dugdale, quoting the MS., book belonging to Lord Herbert of Chirbury, from Herbert Fitzroy, a natural son of that monarch. Sanford, who was Lancaster Herald, mentions his having seen this document, and as such quotes it in his Genealogy, p 31., but does not give any date to it, or to the return. He refers to a pedigree in the College of Arms, (E.12.42^o) in corroboration of the descent from Henry I; and in a MS (marked E 13) in the same repository, (both books being of the time of Elizabeth) on a sheet bound in with the book, is a pedigree commencing with Herbert, father of Peter, who married the daughter of Bledhyn Broadspeare, (or "Brokenspeare") which gives the descent from Henry I., all which nearly agree in other particulars with that said to be certified by the Welsh Bards. In another MS., in the Herald's College, entitled "Arbor Honoris," of the time of Charles II., the Pedigree is also deduced from the blood royal.

There are several Pedigrees of Herbert in Glover's and Phillpott's Collections in the College of Arms, but none so high as to give the early generations prior to the grandfather, or great grandfather, of the Earl. It is remarkable that Vincent, in two Pedigrees which he gives in his own hand, makes the descent different from that certified in the asserted commission of Edward IV., not deducing them from Henry I., in which he is corroborated by a MS., about the close of the 17th Century. by William Lewis, and purchased, among others, a few years ago, by the Herald's College, of Edward Protheroe, Esq. In Sir Edgerton Bridges edition of Collin's Peerage, (1812) the descent of Herbert is given in Vol. iii, with a variety of references. Now, the commission is not referred to in any Pedigree in the College of Arms - a discrepancy is shown in the date; Coxe and Fenton stating it to be 1460, and Dugdale 1462. Edward IV, commenced his reign on the 4 March 1460/1, so that the two first must be wrong in assigning the return to the 12 Aug. 1460; and the date 1462 is irreconcilable with the fact, that William Herbert was not created Earl of Pembroke till the 8th of Edward IV., or 1468, while he is so styled in the asserted document. Lewys Glyn Cothi, in the Ode he addressed to him, thus alludes to his great grandfather, who lived at Wernddu, in Monmouthshire, -

Syr William Herbert gwrser alwyn hardd; Hil Gwilym ab Siancyn.

And again to Siancyn's father, Adam, and to Lord Herbert's mother as daughter of David Gam, -

Adam Davydd Gam oedd ei gymmhar;

but mentions none of the previous ancestry. Although I cannot help regarding this copy of a commission, which was found by Dugdale in a MS., book, as a forgery, it is here presented as in Fenton's Pembrokeshire.

"A true Coppie of an antient memorable treatise of record touchinge the progenie and descent of the honorable name and family of the Herberts, by Commission from E.4. Ano:Dom:1460.

Now, that this is a forgery, and not earlier than the reign of Henry VIII, is shown by the recurrence four times of the word Majesty, which was first invented as a title for the Emperor Charles V., and then adopted in the latter part of his reign by his rival, the English monarch. But the probable time of its having been written seems demonstrated by the following from Dugdale:- SIR WALTER HERBERT succeeded the first Earl; but as he raised all his power to oppose the Earl of Richmond, on that nobleman's obtaining the crown, he conferred the title of LORD

HERBERT of Ragland on SIR CHARLES SOMERSET, who had married his niece. The first Earl, however, had a natural son, RICHARD HERBERT of Ewyas, in Herefordshire, whose son WILLIAM was created Earl of Pembroke by King Edward VI., and was brother to SIR GEORGE HERBERT of Swansea, Kt. It was then most probably in the reign of Edward VI., that for some especial object this pretended document was compiled; perhaps, because the Somersets has royal blood, and therefore to boast as much.

(All of above from Dwnn pp 196, 197 v.I)

WILLIAM HERBERT 1st EARL of PEMBROKE of 2nd Creation (ED, Dwnn,ON)

b 1507 d 1569/70 Buried at St. Paul's, London

Knight of the Garter 1549; Created Baron Herbert of Caerdiff & Earl of Pembroke 11 Oct 1551 5th of Edward VI; Granted Arms and Crest in 1542; Courtier of Henry VIII 1557; Captain General of English Army in France.

From whom descend the EARLS of PEMBROKE, CARNARVON, POWIS & the MARQUIS of BUTE.
(see also Curiosities in Wilton House)

HENRY VIII bestowed on SIR WILLIAM HERBERT 1st EARL of PEMBROKE of the 2nd Creation, the house and site of Wilton-Abbey and the Lands belonging to it. Pembroke engaged Hans Holbein (died 1554) to design a palace for him. Heads of EDWARD VI, of LORD and LADY PEMBROKE & some of their children by Holbein are in the niches in the great hall. A full length statue of Pembroke by Hans Holbein is in the gallery of the Great Hall at Wilton.

In the Chapel on the window are painted WILLIAM the First EARL and his 2 sons, HENRY and EDWARD. In another panel is LADY ANNE PARR, sister to QUEEN CATHERINE 6th wife of HENRY VIII. Her daughter ANNE is with her, who was married to FRANCIS, LORD TALBOT, son to 6th EARL of SHREWSBURY. (Curiosities in Wilton House 10th Ed. 1784)

A comparatively modern family, the HERBERTS did not own a foot of land in the Country until the reign of HENRY VIII.....the only grant of monastic land in Wilts obtained by the HERBERTS was WILTON ABBEY and the lands thereto belonging.

Besides about 2000 acres of land in IRELAND, the EARL of PEMBROKE owns 39,600 acres in Wiltshire. In the neighborhood of Wilton. The Herberts are looked upon with almost as much awe and reverence as if they held their title deeds direct from the divine hand.

Herberts, of course, claim Norman descent, going back to HERBERT FITZ-HERBERT, Chamberlain of HENRY I, one of whose descendants became the EARL of PEMBROKE who, though he had no successor in his Earldom, had a bastard son, whose son, WILLIAM HERBERT, having become a Courtier of HENRY VIII received from that monarch a grant of the Wilton Abbey lands. At the death of Henry he became one of the principal members of the Government and put down a rebellion in the West of England. Shortly after he was Created, or Created himself EARL of PEMBROKE. The Right Honourable HENRY HERBERT.
 Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery,
 Baron Herbert of Cardiff, Ross of Kendal, Parr, Fitz-Hugh, Warrmion, St. Quintin, and Herbert of Shurland

GEORGE HERBERT 1593 - 1632 = 1628 = JANE DANVERS

His eldest brother was EDWARD, LORD HERBERT of CHIRBURY known as the "Black Lord Herbert" because of his black hair and beard. He was 5th son of Richard.

He had no children of his own. His mother Magdalen was left a widow with 7 sons and 3 daughters. Magdalen married second Sir JOHN DANVERS. George was Chaplain to LORD PEMBROKE (Henry Herbert Earl of Pembroke)

The "Church Porch" written by George Herbert contained the following:

Drink not the third glass, which thou canst not tame when once it is within thee.

Love and a cough cannot be hid.

Deceive not thy physician, confessor nor lawyer.

Hell is full of good meanings and wishings.

Whose house is of glass, must not throw stones at another.

The buyer needs a hundred eyes, the seller but one.

Time is the rider that breaks youth.

You may bring a horse to the river, but he will drink when and what he pleaseth.

Show me a liar and I will show you a thief.

He that lends, gives.

Words are women, deeds are men.

Poverty is no sin.

Woe be to he who reads but one book.

One hours Sleep before midnight is worth three thereafter.

Half the world knows not how the other half lives.

The best mirror is an old friend. He hath no leisure who useth it not.

Before you make a friend eat a bushel of salt with him.

All are presumed good till they are found in a fault.

There is an hour wherein a man might be happy all his life could he find it.

Compliments cost nothing, yet so many pay dearly for them.

The Shortest Prayer for Thanksgiving:

Thou hast given so much to us, give one thing more, a grateful heart. Amen.

George Herbert was born 3 April 1593 and died 1 Mar 1632/3.

3rd Earl of Pembroke? See also 1 H 59 relating to 1st settlement of virginia.

1593 - At the age of 13 he went to complete his education at New College, Oxford, where he remained for about 2 years.

About 1597 he asked permission to move to London (17 years old). He arrives in the Summer of 1599 during a sudden levy of troops on the rumor of a Spanish Invasion. (Lodge)

19 Jan 1601 - Succeeded his father as 3rd Earl of Pembroke.

23 May 1609 - (7th James I) - Stith's app No. 2 (1 H 82)

2nd Charter to the Treasurer and Company of Virginia

Referring to a letter patent from JAMES I dated 10 April 1606, 4th James I.
.... a petition for a further enlargement and explanation thereof.

Company Incorporated: "give, grant and confirm to ROBERT EARL of SALISBURY; THOMAS EARL OF SUFFOLK; HENRY EARL of SOUTHAMPTON; WILLIAM EARL of PEMBROKE; HENRY EARL OF LINCOLN, EARL OF DORSET; THOMAS EARL OF EXETER; PHILIP EARL OF MONTGOMERY; SIR OLIVER CROMWELL, Knight; SIR WILLIAM COKE;
SIR HENRY HOBART, Knight; SIR FRANCIS BACON; CAPTAIN HERBERT; CAPTAIN WOOD-HOUSE; CAPTAIN WILLIAM LOVELACE; CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH, Esq.; DAVID WOODHOUSE.

That they shall be one body or commonalty perpetual and shall have perpetual succession and one common seal..... shall be known, called and incorporated by the name of THE TREASURER AND COMPANY OF ADVENTURERS AND PLANTERS OF THE CITY OF LONDON for the FIRST COLONY OF VIRGINIA. (may take and hold property)

1609 - In Second Charter of Virginia - "I give, grant and confirm to our trusty and well beloved servants: WILLIAM HERBERT EARL OF PEMBROKE (son of HENRY and brother of PHILIP).....CAPTAIN HERBERT &c (This is a repeat of the above with some names left out) (1 B 396)

1609 - WILLIAM HERBERT 3rd EARL OF PEMBROKE was a Member of the King's Council for the Virginia Company in 1609.

23 May 1609 - A grant to WILLIAM EARL OF PEMBROKE for the First Colony of Virginia from SIR THOMAS DALE.

(Calendar of State Papers, American & West Indies 1574 - 1660)

1612 - WILLIAM HERBERT 3rd E. of P. was a Member of the Virginia Company in 1609 and paid £ 400. (5 V 85)

The Rappahannock River was originally Pembroke River. He took an active part in Virginia affairs, having patented 30,000 acres in Virginia in 1630.

29 Jun 1614 - A grant to WILLIAM HERBERT E. of P. - a Plantation in SOMERS islands. (Calendar of State Papers - see above) His interest in the Bermudas was commemorated by a division of the Island being named for him.

1620- He patented 30,000 acres of Land in Virginia and he undertook to send over emigrants and cattle. It is clear, therefore, that the 3rd Earl of Pembroke was responsible for emigrants to Virginia and, no doubt, in view of his interest in the West Indies, he would arrange for emigrants to the West Indies. It may be that he arranged for special ships for the conveyance of the emigrants, cattle and stores. There were many HERBERTS, WILKINSONS and WILLOUGHBYs in the West Indies.

2 Feb 1627 - WILLIAM HERBERT EARL OF PEMBROKE 1580 - 1630 was included in a grant to his brother in BARBADOS. He had an illegitimate child, the note says he did not marry. He had mistresses. (We know that he did marry in England, but was she deceased? Their two children died in infancy, the last being born in 1621) (VWB Church, Genealogist, England)

19 May 1627 - A grant to WILLIAM HERBERT E. of P., a Plantation in GUIANA. (Calendar of State Papers 1574-1660)

25 Feb 1629/30 It is said that he obtained a grant of Barbados, but Barbados was included in a grant to his brother, PHILIP on 2 Feb 1627/8, Could this be the same patent?

He had been appointed, in 1615, Lord Chamberlain of the Household and was afterwards Chancellor of the University of Oxford. He resigned his appointment of Lord Chamberlain to enable James to give it to his brother, PHILIP, who afterwards succeeded him in the Earldom and accepted, in Lieu of it, Steward of the Household. In 1630 he received from CHARLES I the offices of Warden and Chief Justice of the Forests South of Trent & Warden of Stanneries.

Lord Clarendon said "WILLIAM EARL OF PEMBROKE was the most universally beloved and esteemed of any man of that age.....he was himself learned and endowed with a poetical genie some of his poems had musical notes set to them by Henry Lawes and Nicholas Lanear." All that he had extant were published under this title: "Poems by Wm. Earl of Pembroke &c" many of which are answered by Sir Benjamin Rudyard. (A James Rudyard, Grocer of London, was gr-gr-father of JOHN HERBERT who died in 1704 and buried in Blanford Cemetery, Petersburg, Va. ?) "He died" says Wood "according to the calculation of his Nativity made several years before by Mr. Thomas Allen of Gloucester Hall." Granger informs us of a lamentable tradition in the family, that when his body was opened, in order to be embalmed, upon the incision being made, he lifted one of his hands. - 1595 - to Oxford at 12 years. Returned home in 1600.
- 24 Jul 1603 - Knight of the Bath on Accession of James I Sheriff of Montgomeryshire
- 1608 - He obtained a license to go beyond the seas.
- 1610 - He was a volunteer to the Netherlands commanded by the PRINCE OF ORANGE at the seige of Juliers where he distinguished himself.
- 1614 - He again volunteered in the campaign under the PRINCE OF ORANGE.
- 1616 - Nominated Ambassador to LOUIS 13 - appointed a second time in 1619 as Ambassador to Paris. He never filled any other public station, returning home greatly in debt and received little reward for his services beyond the Irish peerage of Castle Island and the English Barony of Cherbury.
- 31 Dec 1624 - By patent. Raised to the Peerage of IRE-LAND by the title of LORD HERBERT OF CASTLE ISLAND in co KERRY.
- 7 May 1629 - (Lodge gives 1630) Advanced by CHARLES I to BARON HERBERT OF CHERBURY, co SALOP, ENGLAND.(Ency)
- 1632 - Appointed a Member of the Council of War. (Ency)
- 1639 - He attended the King at York.
- 1642 - He was imprisoned by the Parliament for urging the words "without cause" to the resolution that the King violated his oath by making War on Parliament.
He determined, after this, to take no further part in the struggle, retired to Montgomery Castle and declined the King's summons.
- 5 Sep 1644 - He surrendered the Castle to the parliamentary forces, returned to London, submitted and was granted a pension of £ 20 a week (Ency) for his livelihood having been spoiled by the King's forces.(Whitelock & Wood) says that he received satisfaction from that assembly for their having caused his CASTLE OF MONTGOMERY to be demolished. (Lodge)
- 1645 - His De Veritate, twice printed in Paris was published in London. He left many specimens of English Poetry, most of which were published by his younger son in 1665. His Reign of Henry VIII is the production on which his literary fame chiefly rests. (Lodge)
- 1647 - He paid a visit to Gassendi at Paris. (Ency)

His Manuscript, written when he he was beyond 60 years (between 1643-1648), of his Autobiography was in great danger of being lost to the world. At LYMORE in MONTGOMERY-SHIRE (the chief seat of the family after CROMWELL had demolished MONTGOMERY CASTLE) was preserved the original MSS found at LYMORE among some old papers in very bad condition.
Several leaves being torn out and others stained. A duplicate was found in the Estate of HENRY HERBERT of RIBBISFORD.

HERBERT signed and published in the presence of us: JOANE BROWNING, ART: TREVOR: FRID: KLIM: THOMAS THOMAS: RICHARD DAVIS: DOROTHY WATSON: GRIFFITH JONES.

PROBATUM: The probate is written in Latin and is very hard to read. It was apparently in London the 5th day of October 1648. The name of NATHANIELIS BRENT IS VERY CLEAR and also EDWARDI HERBERT. There are others, EVANO THOMAS, being the only clear one.....

EDWARD 1st LORD HERBERT of CHERBURY called "THE BLACK LORD HERBERT"

Eldest son & heir of RICHARD HERBERT ESQ. of MONTGOMERY CASTLE in North Wales.

Great, great grandson of SIR RICHARD HERBERT of COLEBROOK, in Monmouthshire who was next brother to WILLIAM, 1st EARL OF PEMBROKE.

His Mother was MAGDALEN dau & heir of SIR RICHARD NEWPORT of High Ercal in Shropshire.

Nephew of SIR FRANCIS NEWPORT.

"My mother was MAGDALEN NEWPORT daughter of SIR RICHARD NEWPORT and MARGARET, his wife, daughter and heir of SIR THOMAS BROMLEY, one of the Privy Councill and executor of KING HENRY VIII.....by these ancestors I am descended of TALBOT, DEVOREUX, GRAY, CORBET and many other noble families as may be seen in their matches in the many fair coats the NEWPORTS bear." (p 1)

"I remember a defluction at my ears, continued in that violence, that my friends did not think fit to teach me so much as my alphabet 'til I was seven years old, at which time, my defluction ceased, and left me free of the disease my ancestors were subject unto, being epileosoy (sic)." (pp 22, 23)

"....shortly after (his father's death circa 1594) I was sent again to my studies at Oxford, where I had not been long but that an overture for a match with the daughter and heir of SIR WILLIAM HERBERT of SAINT GILLIANS was made, the occassion whereof was this: SIR WILLIAM HERBERT being heir male to the old EARL OF PEMBROKE.....oy a younger son of his, for the eldest son had a daughter who carried away those great possessions the EARLE of WORCESTER now holds in Monmouthshire. Having only one daughter surviving, made his will whereby he estated all his possessions in Monmouthshire and Ireland upon his said daughter upon conditions she married one of the surname of Herbert otherwise the said lands to descend to the heirs male of the said SIR WILLIAM, and his daughter to have only a small portion out of the lands he had in ANGLESEY and CARNARVONSHIRE.....his daughter MARY continued unmarried until she was one and twenty, none of the Herberts appearing in all that time who either in age or fortune was fit to match her. About this time I had attained the age of 15 years and a match at last being prooosed, yet notwithstanding the disparity of years betwixt us, upon the eighth and twentieth of February 1598 in the house of Eyton, where the same man, Vicar of(-blank-) married my father and mother, christened and married me, I espoused her." (pp 25,26)

(Lodge):

He had been sent to Oxford at the age of 12 and was entered a Gentleman Commoner of University College. He remained there until 1600, when he settled in London. He went to Paris in 1609 leaving his wife pregnant, and with three small children. In the Spring of 1610 he embarked for the Netherlands as a volunteer with the English Troops, Commanded by the Prince of Orange at the seige of Juliers, where he distinguished himself.....In 1614 he again volunteered in a campaign under the Prince of Orange..... In 1616 he was nominated Ambassador to Louis 13th for the professed purpose of renewing the oath of alliance between JAMES and the deceased HENRY 4th, but in fact to negotiate in favour of the protestants. He was appointed a second time as Ambassador to Paris.

He never filled any other public Station. On the 22 Dec 1624, shortly before the death of JAMES he was raised to the Peerage of Ireland, by the title of LORD HERBERT of CASTLE ISLAND, in the COUNTY of KERRY, in which he possessed a considerable estate, and on the 7 May 1630, was advanced by CHARLES I to BARON HERBERT of CHERBURY of ENGLAND.

The Parliamentary History informs us that he gave a great offence to the House of Peers by a warm speech on the side of loyalty, and that he was among those of the nobility who attended the King at York..... LORD ORFORD, without citing his authority, charges him with having sided with the majority in the Long Parliament and expressly with having "taken up arms against the Crown." Whitelock says that on the 25 Feb 1644 the Parliament "granted him an allowance for his livelihood having been spoiled by the King's forces;" and Wood, on the other hand tells us that "he received satisfaction from that assembly for their having caused his Castle of Montgomery to be demolished." These perhaps ought not to be considered as contradictory reports. Herbert prooably temporised(Lodge)

1645 - His De Veritate having been twice printed in Paris was republished in London. He left many specimens of English Poetry, most of which were collected and published together by his younger son in 1655. His History of the Reign of Henry VIII is the production on which his literary fame chiefly rests. (Lodge)

THE NEWPORT LINE OF EDWARD, LORD HERBERT of CHERBURY:

SIR RICHARD NEWPORT, Knt = = MARGARET

The patronymic of a noble English house, many of whose members figure in English History, Politics, and Literature. Among them is the name of EDWARD, LORD HERBERT of CHERBURY, an eminent philosopher, and statesman, born 1581 and died 1633. His work "On Truth" has been termed "a monument of original and independent free thinking." His brother GEORGE HERBERT born 1593 entered holy orders, and gave his country some poems - quaint, indeed, but exquisite as specimens of the Elizabethan verse. George died in 1633. (Standard Ency. by Prof. Chas. Morris)

ENGLISH BIOGRAPHY BEFORE 1700 by Stauffer - New York Public Library

The curious researched of Malpole were also responsible for the publication in 1764 of the autobiography of EDWARD LORD HERBERT of CHERBURY, which is allied in spirit with CARY's memoirs. The life stops with HERBERT's return from France in 1624 although CARY did not set it down until the year 1643. His egotism is marked. The biography begins with his precocity and his first question: "Why was I born?" A question which the life does not attempt to solve. That HERBERT was an original and serious thinker cannot be gleaned from his autobiography. He is ingeniously conscious of his own attractions, his beauty, and his bravery. His portrait, he mentions, was sought by great dames and "gave occasion ... of more discourse than I could have wished" (p 128). Once, upon entering LADY AYRES' chamber, he says (p 129), "I found it was my picture she looked upon with more earnestness and passion than I could have believed."

Lively anecdotes, repartee, and epigrams crowd his pages; his continental career is largely composed of challenges and duels, with a side pilgrimage to a country inn to see the daughter of the host, reputed the most beautiful woman in Europe. She does not move him. His diplomatic career in the Embassy at Paris is marked by typical self-esteem (p 193):

"When I came to Paris, the English and French were in very ill intelligence with each other, insomuch that one BUCKLY coming then to me, said he was assaulted and hurt upon Pontneuf, only because he was an Englishman: nevertheless, after I had been in Paris about a month, all the English were so welcome thither, that no other nation was so acceptable amongst them, insomuch, that my gentlemen having a quarrel with some debauched French, who in their drunkenness quarrelled with them, divers principal gentlemen of that nation offered themselves to assist my people with their swords."

This entertaining and frivolous succession of anecdotes follows oddly upon the heels of his declaration: "I have thought fit to relate to my posterity those passages of my life, which I conceive may best declare me, and be most useful to them." Possibly CHERBURY could have fitted into this brave scheme his duels and amours. It is enough for us that such anecdotes sparkle, and that his boastful pen does not grow heavy. (Pages 182 - 183)

EDWARD LORD HERBERT of CHERBURY calls his work of HENRY VIII "The Life and Raigne" (1649) (Page 220)

"Certainly," says CHERBURY in his autobiography (ca 1643), "it will be found much better for men to guide themselves by such observations as their father, grandfather, and great-grandfather might have delivered to them for which reason I have thought fit to relate to my posterity those passages of my life, which I conceive may best declare me, and be useful to them."

The life of a fictitious personage may be rendered more credible if told as an autobiography. Thomas was one of the first to make capital of this device, and his Life of Jacke Wilton (1594) is a dashing and exuberant series of incidents told by its cunning and unscrupulous hero.

Just as the saints' lives begin with accounts of the unusual holiness of their heroes in childhood, so Walton commences his life of HERBERT with: "the beauties of his pretty behaviour and wit, shin'd and became so eminent and lovely in this his innocent Age, that he seem'd to be marked out for piety, and to become the care of Heaven, and of a particular angel to guard and guide him." When GEORGE HERBERT grows to manhood, Walton continues with the "almost incredible story, of the sanctity of the short remainder of his holy life; a life so full of Charity, Humility, and of Christian virtues, that it deserves the Eloquence of St. Chrysostom to commend and declare it."

19 Nov 1698 - THOMAS WILLOUGHBY's deed to COZEN (1/2 nephew) JOHN HERBERT Selling land that was supposed to be given (mutilated) dated 15 Jan 1669 (this date is the date of JOHN HERBERT I's will) (6 DB 144 Nc)

(NOTE: The above two deeds, although mutilated, show that there was some default in the division of the land and JOHN & THOMAS are re-establishing the proper lines. The deeds are also further proof that THOMAS WILLOUGHBY is the son of MARY HERBERT, relict of JOHN HERBERT I. AGW)

The preceding records from MARY BENNETT to this point should prove without any doubt her children, at least those that reached maturity, and certainly establishes the identity of THOMAS WILLOUGHBY of the SOUTHERN BRANCH who seems to have been a question mark in most published records of the WILLOUGHBY FAMILY.

A THOMAS WILLOUGHBY of BARBADOS BWI = = ELIZABETH _____
He was buried in 1648/9, March, in the Parish of St. Michaels, Barbados.
He left a son EDWARD Administrator of his estate and the relict ELIZABETH.

If this ELIZABETH, the relict of the above THOMAS WILLOUGHBY was a MIDDLETON we may have the father and mother of CAPT. THOMAS WILLOUGHBY of VIRGINIA.

Proof is needed of her maiden name.

CAPT. THOMAS WILLOUGHBY (named his only daughter ELIZABETH) b ca 1601 - he was 23 years old in 1624.
d before Apr 1657 in ALHALOWES, BARKING, LONDON, ENGLAND (Is there a Parish 1610 He came to Virginia in the ship "Prosperous". Register)

1627 - aged 27 "of ROCHESTER, ENGLAND" - He was returning to Virginia from England.

1644-1647 Merchant of RED LYON ALLEY, ST. BOTOLPH, ALGATE, LONDON, ENGLAND.

His wife may have been ALICE . Could she have been ALICE LAYTON daughter of JOHN LAYTON and ANN BURRAS maid servant to MISTRESS FORREST. John and Ann Burras were the first English Marriage on American soil in 1608 in Virginia.
CAPT. THOMAS WILLOUGHBY and JOHN LAYTON were neighbors in Elizabeth City County, Va. on the North side of the James River in the 1620s.

CAPT. WILLOUGHBY died before Apr 1657 leaving an estate in Barbados. His NEPHEW THOMAS MIDDLETON, ESQ. was made Administrator of his estate for the use of the children, THOMAS & ELIZABETH now beyond the seas.

CAPT. WILLOUGHBY's son THOMAS was made administrator of his father's estate in Virginia in 1658. His father having deceased in England. This son was born in 1632 which gives a clue to the possible marriage date of his father.
Thomas II attended the Merchant Taylor's School in England. ELIZABETH, the daughter may have been the eldest as she married before her brother which may mean that the father married before or by 1628-1630.

Out of an 18 year span CAPT. WILLOUGHBY spent 12 years out of the Colony of Virginia, and much of the time was in England, and possibly Barbados. He is not on the list of Commissioners or Justices of Lower Norfolk County appointed by Sir. Wm. Berkeley, however, each time he returned to Virginia he presided as Justice at each Court and was a Burgess for most of the time that he spent in Virginia.

THE COAT OF ARMS ON THOMAS HERBERT'S 1749 WILL

On the 28 January 1973 Mr. Francis Leeson of the Surname Archive, 108 Sea Lane, Ferring, Sussex, England, BN12 2HB concluded his research for your compiler on the coat of arms pictured.

"I have made further investigation into the question of the seal and feel that it undoubtedly represents the royal arms of the House of Hanover, which were used as the seal of Virginia in the reign of George II (1727-60). These were quarterly:

- (1) England impaling Scotland
- (3) Ireland

- (2) France
- (4) Hanover

It is the appearance of the Hanover arms in the bottom right quarter that clinches this identification as one can clearly see in the middle of them the Golden Crown of Charlemagne, which is in three segments. The least encouraging quarter is the one for Ireland, but even here there is the fact that the harp on the George II arms comprised a very busty winged figure with sturdy wing tips and scrolling, even at the top right-hand tip of the harp. The lumpiness of the seal in this quarter could quite well be occasioned by this heavy modelling.

As I said before, the crown is a royal one and the supporters and the motto the same as for the Stewart Kings, i. e. a lion rampant guardant on one side and a unicorn argent on the other, with the motto 'Dieu et mon Droit'"

The above should put a stop to any further research on the seal on Thomas Herbert's 1749 will.

In an earlier letter, 12 November 1972, Mr. Leeson said "It was certainly not unusual for people to have their wills sealed with any old seal that was handy, particularly if they were prepared by a scrivener who often had a collection of imposing looking seals which he would use on his clients' wills."

".....being in an imperfect state of health of body.....

to wife ABIGAIL the use of all my lands with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging during her natural life, except such lands as I may mention hereafter to be sold, and a small room upstairs in my dwelling house over the little room, the use of which I give to:

my daughter ABIGAIL as long as she remains unmarried, but I do not give liberty to my wife to sell any wood or timber off the land, but only to make use of such as may be necessary for Plantation uses, such as Wood, Railtimber, and buildings or Repairing on the said lands, for her own uses or Convenience. I also give the use of the following slaves to my wife during her natural life: Tom, Conner, Sharper, George, Casar, Sam, November, Davy, Jack, Solomon, Joe and Venus.

but I do give and bequeath to my said wife and to her own disposal forever my slaves called Old Hannah and Alice with all their future increase.....all my silver plate and all the Hard ready Money that I have now in the House by me, amounting to about Forty Pounds. I give the said plate and money to her and her heirs forever.

ITEM: The land and slaves which I have given my wife the use of during her life, I shall in different parts of my will give amongst my loving children, but it is not to be understood in any sentence of my will that they are to pass or go into their possession or use untill my wife's decease; unless she herself thinks proper to give them the possession and uses thereof in her lifetime.

to my son CALEB, my Lands and Plantation whereon I now live with the JONAS apparently did not marry, or had lost his wife, why then, did he own so much household equipment?

He left 6 beds, 4 with furniture and kitchen furniture
12 mahogany chairs & 2 mahogany armed chairs with hair bottoms
4 Wensers chairs.
4 mahogany tables, bookcase, mahogany candlestand, snuffer stand
A large clock, 4 mirrors with gilt frames

Sliver Plate:
12 tablespoons, 12 teaspoons, 4 salt stands with glasses & shovels and 1 pair of sugar tongs 2 dozen knives and forks with ivory handles a set of tongs and shovel and 1 pair of fire dogs

He only named four slaves in his will: Betty, Frank, Amey and Bess

His father left him a negro named Sharper and 1 bed and furniture and forgave him any debts he owed his father.

This is a most interesting will and should be compared to CHRISTOPHER HERBERT'S 1772/1774 will. Most of the things JONAS is leaving apparently originally belonged to his brother CHRISTOPHER as CHRISTOPHER'S Inventory 1774 will show.

Codicile Dated 2 Jan 1870

I MARGARET ANN HERBERT, the within named testator do make this present Codicil which I own and direct to be taken as a part of my within written last will and testament:

ITEM: I do hereby revoke that portion of my said will [but no other] which is written in these words: " I bequeath to my son ABNER T. HERBERT my parlour and dining room furniture not otherwise bequeathed, should the proceeds of my estate exceed the amount above bequeathed, the excess must be divided equally among my children;" and do hereby instead of the said bequests and devises substitute make and ordain the following:

ITEM: I give and bequeath to my daughter in law CHARLOTTE A. the wife of ABNER T. HERBERT and to her children forever to be held to her sole use and free from any and all debts and liabilities of my said son ABNER T. HERBERT my parlour and dining room furniture not otherwise bequeathed.

ITEM: Should the proceeds of my estate exceed the amounts above bequeathed, I desire and do hereby direct that the excess shall be equally divided between my children ALICE, MARY N., ARTHUR E., and ELLEN C. HERBERT and my said daughter in law CHARLOTTE A. the wife of my said son ABNER T. HERBERT the said portion so divided to my said daughter in law CHARLOTTE V. HERBERT to be held to the sole use and benefit of herself and her children and to be held free from any and all liabilities of my said son ABNER T. HERBERT, The portion of my said will not hereby altered and revoked, I do hereby ratify and confirm fully. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the 2nd day of January A. D. 1871. (Date difers from 1870 at top of will.)

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO USE THIS INDEX.

All of the charts and pages of this book have been indexed and unless these instructions are read and understood the index could be confusing because of the code letters for the charts.

The charts are indicated by letters for the particular chart and the number indicates the column on the chart in which the name appears.

C = The Edward Lord Herbert of Castle Island, Co. Kerry, Ireland

D = The Derivation of the Herbert Family Chart 613 AD - 1469

E = The Chart titled Herbert in England 1424 - 1700s

M = The Muckcross Castle Chart in Ireland

P = The Pembroke Chart

V1, V2A, V2B, V2C, V3 & V4 = The six charts titled Herbert in Va.

W/H = The Chart headed CAPT. THOMAS WILLOUGHBY showing the Herbert connection.

Y = Yates Family in England, British West Indies and Lower Norfolk

V4⁸ would mean that the item or name appears in column eight of the Herbert in Virginia Chart number four.

Other smaller charts throughout the book are index by page numbers.
